ORDER:

The Director General of Police, A.P., Hyderabad, in his letter 2nd read above, has reported that Sri G. Rama Koteswara Rao, Inspector of Police, Prakasam District, was handed upon a charge for the following delinquency:-

"Exhibited gross dereliction of duty by disobeying deliberately the orders of the superior officers not to interfere into civil matters and also to return the promissory notes obtained from the respondent and also pressuring the SI of Police, Ongole Town PS to register a civil matter a criminal case in which police is no way concerned to interfere. It gave the Police Department very bad name in the public".

2. The Superintendent of Police, Prakasam District, duly following the procedure prescribed under APCS (CC&A) Rules, held the charge as 'proved' and imposed the punishment of PPI for three years without effect on future increments and pension, vide his proceedings No.277/PR/A4/2005, dated 1.8.2006. His appeal petition was considered and rejected by the appellate authority i.e. Addl. Director General of Police (Admn.), Hyderabad vide his proceedings No.1333/Appeal-3/2006, dated 22.7.2008.

3. Aggrieved by the above orders, Sri G. Rama Koteswara Rao, Inspector of Police, Prakasam District, has submitted a revision petition to the Government, vide reference 1st read above, requesting to set aside the above said punishment, for the reasons mentioned therein.

4. After careful examination of the entire matter, with reference to the records made available, Government have observed that the SI being SHO was solely responsible for booking any FIR and nothing prevented him to approach or inform the higher authorities, if the charged officer pressurized him to issue an FIR in a Civil Case as a Criminal Case. It was observed that nothing of such sort was done by the SI. The Government, therefore, hereby set aside the punishment of 'PPI for three years without effect on future increments and pension' imposed on Sri G. Rama Koteswara Rao, Inspector of Police, Prakasam District, warded by the Superintendent of Police, Prakasam District vide his proceedings No.277/PR/A4/2005, dated 1.8.2006.

5. The Director General of Police, A.P., Hyderabad, is requested to take necessary follow up action in the matter. The records received in the reference 2nd read above are herewith returned and the receipt of the same may be acknowledged.
